Student Information and Application
Horizons Unlimited is designed to give academically gifted & talented students an opportunity to participate in hands-on, experiential learning. The Horizons program provides students with courses that are interdisciplinary, enriching and stimulating.

This year, we will offer a one-week sessions with a STEM technology focus July 20-24, 2015.

Each student is considered fully and thoroughly on the basis of his or her abilities and accomplishments presented through the completed application. A decision on an application cannot be made until all required information has been received.

Students who will enter 6th, 7th or 8th grade in the fall of 2015 and have been identified by their school for participation in a gifted program may apply. Students who are recommended by their teacher or who exhibit outstanding abilities in areas such as the visual and performing arts, creative writing, or leadership may also apply.

Tuition, Deposit and Refund Policy
- Tuition
  - $249 per student
  - $229 per student if parent is OU faculty or staff

Fees are due at time of registration. 100% of the program fee will be refunded if enrollment is canceled before Thursday, June 26, 2015. After that date, no refunds will be granted.

Application Process
- Complete the attached student application form
- Student obtains letter of recommendation
  - Letter must be from the school’s gifted and talented coordinator. If student’s school does not have a coordinator, recommendation may be from principal, counselor or teacher.
