Student Information and Application

Horizons Unlimited is designed to give academically gifted & talented students an opportunity to participate in hands-on, experiential learning. The Horizons program provides students with courses that are interdisciplinary, enriching and stimulating.

This year, we will offer a one-week session with two sections: Anthropology and Meteorology from July 10 – 14, 2017. All students will attend both sections.

Each student is considered fully and thoroughly on the basis of his or her abilities and accomplishments presented through the completed application. A decision on an application cannot be made until all required information has been received.

Students who will enter 6th, 7th or 8th grade in the fall of 2017 and have been identified by their school for participation in a gifted program may apply. Students who are recommended by their teacher or who exhibit outstanding abilities in areas such as the visual and performing arts, creative writing, or leadership may also apply.

Tuition, Deposit and Refund Policy

- Tuition: $254 per student
- Tuition: $234 per student if parent is OU faculty or staff

Fees are due at time of registration. 100% of the program fee will be refunded if enrollment is canceled before Thursday, June 29, 2017. After that date, no refunds will be granted.

Application Process

- Complete the attached student application form
- Student obtains letter of recommendation
  - Letter must be from the school’s gifted and talented coordinator. If student’s school does not have a coordinator, recommendation may be from principal, counselor or teacher.

APPLICATION POSTMARK DEADLINE: June 16, 2017.

Applications may be emailed to: precollegiateprograms@ou.edu or mailed to:
