Assignments, Grading and Due Dates:

1. Readings: All readings of the textbooks must have been completed before the first day of the seminar. Students should attend the first class session prepared to describe, critique, and apply the ideas presented in any of the required readings.

2. Examination (50%): A comprehensive examination will be given on the last day of the seminar. Multiple-choice questions and essay-type questions will be derived from the readings and in-class activities.

3. In-Class Performance (20%): The level of preparedness and contribution each student makes to assigned and unassigned in-class seminar activities (e.g., open discussions, group presentations, debates, and individual speeches) will be assessed.

4. Post-Seminar Review-Synthesis Paper (30%): An individual paper must be submitted as an e-mail attachment by no more than two weeks from the last day of the seminar. Thoroughly review and reflect on the entire course readings and notes from in-class activities, write a review-synthesis essay of 5000 words or longer (typed and double-spaced, all-inclusive). Additional readings are neither necessary nor recommended.

   The paper should address two main objectives: (a) to identify, describe, and explain 10 most important ideas that you have learned from this course about intercultural communication; and (b) to present a well-considered assessment of these ideas in terms of their significance in advancing your intellectual understanding as well as the utility thereof for enhancing the quality of your communication experience involving culturally dissimilar others.

   The paper must be written in your own voice and your own words throughout. Direct quotes from the readings should be used only when necessary. Write clearly and organize the paper logically using section and subsection headings in accordance with the APA Manual (5th ed.).

Grading: This is a letter graded course: A, B, C, D, or F. Based on the cumulative total percentile score, a letter grade will be assigned according to the following scale: A = 90-100; B = 80-89; C – 70-79; D = 60-69; F = Less than 60.

Attendance/Grade Policy

Attendance and participation in interaction, individual assignments, group exercises, simulations, role playing, etc. are valuable aspects of any course because much of the learning comes from discussions in class with other students. It is expected that you attend all classes and be on time except for excused emergencies.

Excused absences are given for professor mandated activities or legally required activities such as emergencies or military assignments. Unavoidable personal emergencies, including (but not limited to) serious illness; delays in getting to class because of accidents, etc.; deaths and funerals, and hazardous road conditions will be excused.

If you are obtaining financial assistance (TA, STAP, FA, VA, Scholarship, etc.) to pay all or part of your tuition cost, you must follow your funding agency/institution’s policy regarding “I” (Incomplete) grades unless the timeline is longer than what the University policy allows then you must adhere to the University policy.

Students who receive Financial Aid must resolve/complete any “I” (Incomplete) grades by the end of the term or he/she may be placed on “financial aid probation.” If the “I” grade is not resolved/completed by the end of the following term, the student’s Financial Aid may be suspended make the student ineligible for further Financial Aid.

Students are responsible for meeting the guidelines of Tuition Assistance and Veterans Assistance. See the education counselor at your local education center for a complete description of your TA or VA requirements.

Academic Honesty

Honesty is a fundamental precept in all academic activities and … [you] have a special obligation to observe the highest standards of honesty. Academic misconduct in any form is inimical to the purposes and functions of the University and is therefore unacceptable and is rigorously proscribed. Academic misconduct includes:

- cheating (using unauthorized materials, information, or study aids in any academic exercise), plagiarism, falsification of records, unauthorized possession of examinations, intimidation, and any and all other actions that may improperly affect the evaluation of a student’s academic performance or achievement; assisting others in any such act; or attempting to engage in such acts.

All acts of academic misconduct will be reported and adjudicated as prescribed by the student code of the University of Oklahoma. All students should review the “Student’s Guide to Academic Integrity” found at http://www.ou.edu/provost/integrity
