Course Objectives:
At the end of the course, the student will:

- have a broad understanding of approaches to communication research; and
- become a more critical consumer of social science research.

Assignments, Grading and Due Dates:
Before class, students are expected to have read the following chapters in the text: 1-10, 15 and 17. Students should come to the first class session with a list of concepts and/or problem areas that pose difficulties for them.

Grading: This is a letter-graded course: A, B, C, D, or F.

The three components of the grade are:

1) Attendance and Participation: You are expected to attend all class sessions and to participate in group activities and discussions. Periodic in-class exercises will be completed and count toward your final grade. (30% of grade total)

2) Final Examination: A final examination will be administered the last class session, covering the material in the book and in class. (40% of grade total)

3) Post-seminar Assignment: For the post-seminar assignment, you are expected to complete a multiple-choice online exam in basic statistics covering the material included in the provided study guide. (30% of grade total). The post-seminar assignment is due May 13, 2012.

NOTICE: Failure to meet assignment due dates could result in a grade of I (Incomplete) and may adversely impact Tuition Assistance and/or Financial Aid.
POLICIES AND NOTICES

Attendance/Grade Policy

Attendance and participation in interaction, individual assignments, group exercises, simulations, role playing, etc. are valuable aspects of any course because much of the learning comes from discussions in class with other students. It is expected that you attend all classes and be on time except for excused emergencies.

Excused absences are given for professor mandated activities or legally required activities such as emergencies or military assignments. Unavoidable personal emergencies, including (but not limited to) serious illness; delays in getting to class because of accidents, etc.; deaths and funerals, and hazardous road conditions will be excused.

If you are obtaining financial assistance (TA, STAP, FA, VA, Scholarship, etc.) to pay all or part of your tuition cost, you must follow your funding agency/institution’s policy regarding “I” (Incomplete) grades unless the timeline is longer than what the University policy allows then you must adhere to the University policy.

Students who receive Financial Aid must resolve/complete any “I” (Incomplete) grades by the end of the term or he/she may be placed on “financial aid probation.” If the “I” grade is not resolved/completed by the end of the following term, the student’s Financial Aid may be suspended make the student ineligible for further Financial Aid.

Students are responsible for meeting the guidelines of Tuition Assistance and Veterans Assistance. See the education counselor at your local education center for a complete description of your TA or VA requirements.

Academic Honesty

Honesty is a fundamental precept in all academic activities and … [you] have a special obligation to observe the highest standards of honesty. Academic misconduct in any form is inimical to the purposes and functions of the University and is therefore unacceptable and is rigorously proscribed. Academic misconduct includes:

- cheating (using unauthorized materials, information, or study aids in any academic exercise), plagiarism, falsification of records, unauthorized possession of examinations, intimidation, and any and all other actions that may improperly affect the evaluation of a student’s academic performance or achievement; assisting others in any such act; or attempting to engage in such acts.

All acts of academic misconduct will be reported and adjudicated as prescribed by the student code of the University of Oklahoma. All students should review the “Student’s Guide to Academic Integrity” found at http://www.ou.edu/provost/integrity
