Course Objectives:
By completing this course, the student should be able to:

- Understand why counseling children and adolescents is different than counseling adults
- Be able to identify factors and/or behaviors that would lead to particular types of counseling interventions
- Understand development of a child and subsequent issues when that development has been disrupted
- Understand the role of trauma in a child/adolescents life

Assignments, Grading and Due Dates:

1. The textbook, Counseling with Children and Adolescents should be read in its entirety prior to the first class session.
2. Pre-class assignment: There are 14 chapters in the textbook. You should select 3 chapters in which you found particular interest and be prepared to discuss them in class. Contact the professor by e-mail prior to class to confirm which chapters may be assigned.
3. Write a 3-5 page paper regarding ethics in the counseling profession. This subject should be researched from sources not in the textbook. Due the first night of class.
4. Using the 2010 Kids Count, Oklahoma Factbook, write a 3-5 page paper as to the major problems for children and adolescents in Oklahoma which result in their counseling needs. (The Kids Count Factbook can be downloaded for free from the internet.) due the first night of class.

Grading: This is a letter-graded course: A, B, C, D, or F.

POLICIES AND NOTICES

Attendance/Grade Policy

Attendance and participation in interaction, individual assignments, group exercises, simulations, role playing, etc. are valuable aspects of any course because much of the learning comes from discussions in class with other students. It is expected that you attend all classes and be on time except for excused emergencies.

Excused absences are given for professor mandated activities or legally required activities such as emergencies or military assignments. Unavoidable personal emergencies, including (but not limited to) serious illness; delays in getting to class because of accidents, etc.; deaths and funerals, and hazardous road conditions will be excused.

If you are obtaining financial assistance (TA, STAP, FA, VA, Scholarship, etc.) to pay all or part of your tuition cost, you must follow your funding agency/institution’s policy regarding “I” (Incomplete) grades unless the timeline is longer than what the University policy allows then you must adhere to the University policy.

Students who receive Financial Aid must resolve/complete any “I” (Incomplete) grades by the end of the term or he/she may be placed on “financial aid probation.” If the “I” grade is not resolved/completed by the end of the following term, the student’s Financial Aid may be suspended make the student ineligible for further Financial Aid.

Students are responsible for meeting the guidelines of Tuition Assistance and Veterans Assistance. See the education counselor at your local education center for a complete description of your TA or VA requirements.

Academic Honesty

Honesty is a fundamental precept in all academic activities and … [you] have a special obligation to observe the highest standards of honesty. Academic misconduct in any form is inimical to the purposes and functions of the University and is therefore unacceptable and is rigorously proscribed. Academic misconduct includes:

- cheating (using unauthorized materials, information, or study aids in any academic exercise), plagiarism, falsification of records, unauthorized possession of examinations, intimidation, and any and all other actions that may improperly affect the evaluation of a student’s academic performance or achievement;
- assisting others in any such act; or attempting to engage in such acts.

All acts of academic misconduct will be reported and adjudicated as prescribed by the student code of the University of Oklahoma. All students should review the “Student’s Guide to Academic Integrity” found at http://www.ou.edu/provost/integrity
