Dear Professor:

Welcome to Germany and especially to the Heidelberg area! I am looking forward to your teaching assignment here for the Ph.D. cohort and would like to coordinate with you so that your time here goes as smoothly as possible.

I work directly with Dr. Peggy Lerner, European Director, in the European Contract Support Office, and feel very lucky that I’m able to work with such a great team in Europe and Norman.

The information in this Guide is current as of spring 2011. Please review this Travel Guide and the Advanced Programs Faculty Guide (see http://www.goou.ou.edu/facultyservices/index.html) well in advance of your departure so that you have sufficient time to contact me regarding your trip.

Your travel arrangements will be made in consultation with Mary Atkins, Advanced Programs Travel Coordinator in Norman, OK. I will make hotel reservations at our local favorite, Hotel Heidelberg, and you will have a rental car reservation made in advance. About a week before you arrive, you will receive an itinerary with more information.

If you have made personal arrangements that will deviate from the normal procedure, please keep me fully informed so that I can be sure that everything goes smoothly for your arrival. We will both have peace of mind if we confirm your arrival times and plans, advise you of weather conditions, inform you of your accommodations, and let you know the latest information about your class.

Please contact me if you need more information. Have a safe and comfortable flight and I look forward to seeing you when you arrive!

Sincerely,

Rebecca Fussnecker

ARRIVALS AND DEPARTURES

Arrival at Frankfurt Airport: Terminal 1

Disembarkation
Lufthansa: A gates; American Airlines, Icelandic Air, and TWA: B gates; United: C gates
Some planes taxi to the terminal; often a bus transports passengers from the plane to the terminal. Free baggage carts are available; these carts can be taken on the escalators.
Follow the signs for Baggage Claim (in English; also picture of baggage and Gepäckausgabe in German)

Passport Control
At the Paßkontrolle (Passport Control), get in the correct line for NON-European Community passengers; have your passport ready. It is rarely needed, but have your orders available if asked.

Baggage Claim
Continue to follow the signs for Baggage Claim. It is a fairly long walk through the airport and down one level. An information board lists the arriving flights and the number of their baggage carousels.

Customs Clearance
After claiming your baggage, look for the Exit/Ausgang and Zoll/Customs signs. The Customs Clearance area has two lanes: Red and Green. Walk through the Green area since you will have nothing to declare.

Airport Shuttle Service
Each of the two terminals at Frankfurt Airport has a central meeting point. Simply look out for a blue luminescent sign saying “Meeting Point” ( ). The area also has a clearly marked waiting area with facilities for your convenience. The Meeting Point for Terminal 1 is located at Hall B, Level 1 (Arrivals). Do not leave the airport or go to another area in the airport. The site manager will notify you via email regarding a meeting point pick-up by Transfer and Limousine Service (TLS) http://www.tls-heidelberg.de/content/index_eng.html
The cost is 66 Euros round trip/33 Euros one way. This shuttle will take you directly to Patrick Henry Village or a local hotel (Hotel Heidelberg).

To Change Money
If you have not brought European money with you and you think you will need some before you get to a bank in Heidelberg, there are money exchange counters in Arrival Hall B as well as throughout the airport.
Arrival at Frankfurt Airport: Terminal 2

Disembarkation
Delta and Sabena: D gates; Air UK, British Airways, Continental, KLM, Northwest, and USAir: E gates. Unless you are traveling to another destination in Germany, you will go through passport control. At the Paßkontrolle (Passport Control), have your passport ready. It is rarely needed, but do have your orders available, if asked.
