2011 Woodford Summit: National Impacts, Regional Opportunities

March 29-30, 2011
Oklahoma Memorial Union
The University of Oklahoma

DISCUSSION TOPICS

- Natural Gas End Use
- Power Generation
- Industrial Use
- Natural Gas Vehicles
- Business and Investment Climate
- America’s Path Toward Greater Energy Independence
- Technical Sessions
- Environmental Issues associated with Shale Gas Development
- Hydraulic Fracturing
- Community Partnerships
- Shale Gas Development Success Stories

SPEAKERS

Mary Fallin  Governor, State of Oklahoma
David Boren  President, University of Oklahoma
Michael Ming  Oklahoma Secretary of Energy
Cheryl LaFluer  Commissioner, Federal Energy Regulatory Commission
Berne Mosley  Deputy Director, Federal Energy Regulatory Commission
James Roller  Marketing and Development Coordinator, Chesapeake Energy
Harold Hamm  Chairman and CEO, Continental Resources
Larry Nichols  Executive Chairman, Devon Energy
Dr. Randy Keller  Oklahoma Geological Survey
Dr. Carl Sondergeld  Professor of Petroleum and Geological Engineering, University of Oklahoma
Dana Murphy  Chairman, Oklahoma Corporation Commission
Lori Wrotenbery  Division, Oklahoma Corporation Commission
Mike Smith  Executive Director, Interstate Oil and Gas Compact Commission

“America’s Path Toward Greater Energy Independence”