CAC Film Series Positions

Programming Team: Responsible for planning events for the weekend and making sure all logistics are covered. Organization and an ability to communicate are key in this role.

Publicity Team: This team is responsible for bringing awareness to campus and to the Norman community about the CAC Awesome OU Event through posters, fliers, social media, etc. Knowledge in marketing is strongly encouraged.

Sponsorship Team: This group will help solicit sponsors to help fund the events of the weekend. You will work with local businesses to see how CAC Awesome OU Event can best partner with them. An ability to communicate, build relationships and follow through is important.

Film Liaisons: The events team is in charge of coordinating each specific event and being the behind the scenes coordinator of each event (especially with the student film production club). Someone with good work ethic and problem solving is ideal for this role.
