Section 1: Status Quo
Currently, there are no election board members for the fall 2010 UOSA Election. UOSA Law mandates that the UOSA Election Chair appoint a minimum of three students to this board with approval by the UOSA legislature. The election board runs the UOSA elections under the direction of the Elections Chair.

Section 2: Intent of Legislation
The intent of this legislation is to appoint members onto this board.

Section 3: Anticipated Harms and Benefits of the new Legislation
This appointment legislation would be beneficial because board members would help facilitate an efficient UOSA Election. Failure to appoint any members to the fall UOSA Election Board could prove to be a detrimental harm without anyone conducting the election properly and legally.
