CONGRESSIONAL RESOLUTION NO. 890404
SENATE BILL GS13-02

AS INTRODUCED
A Concurring Resolution expressing condolence to the family and friends of Professor Frank Elkouri; and providing for distribution.

Whereas: With the death of Professor Elkouri on January 18th, the University of Oklahoma community lost a beloved educator and friend; and

Whereas: Professor Elkouri, author of the renowned thesis “How Arbitration Works”, left a lasting legacy at the OU College of Law; and

Whereas: Professor Elkouri dedicated 33 years of his life to construing his knowledge of the law at the University of Oklahoma to his students and colleagues alike; and

Whereas: Professor Elkouri and his wife Edna Asper Elkouri are responsible for the single largest one time contribution in the history of the OU College of Law; and

Whereas: Professor Elkouri’s friends and students remember him as a kind, dedicated, and generous person whose presence benefited the lives of everyone around him.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE UNIVERSITY OF OKLAHOMA STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION WITH THE GRADUATE STUDENT SENATE CONCURRING THEREIN THAT:

Section 1: The University of Oklahoma Undergraduate Student Congress expresses its deepest, most
