CONGRESSIONAL RESOLUTION NO. 920509

AS INTRODUCED

A Resolution requesting a more professional dress code for Congress general meetings; and providing for distribution.

Whereas: The members of Congress represent the student body to incoming guests and speakers; and
Whereas: All Congress meetings are open; and
Whereas: More professional attire projects a better image; and
Whereas: The Cargo Embargo initially failed; and
Whereas: Business casual attire meets the goal of looking more professional yet still casual enough to be comfortable and classy without making Congress guests uncomfortable.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE UNDERGRADUATE STUDENT CONGRESS THAT:

Section 1: The members of Congress shall be requested to make an effort to dress business casual to convey a more professional appearance to congress general meetings. Business casual has a fairly wide range of fashion options including skirts, dresses, blazers, nice jeans, blouses, button-ups, khakis, sweater vests, flats, heels, boat shoes, and dockers. This would exclude t-shirts, jean shorts, cargos, athletic wear, miniskirts and mini-dresses, and athletic sandals.
