They would recognize the different sororities. There are always fireworks after Friday games. USororities could use it as a fundraiser. He passed out his contact information.

Susan Moring, Center for the Creation of Economic Wealth talked about an internship opportunity on campus. They are looking for leaders on campus. It is located on OU research campus. They are looking for interns for Fall and it comes with a $1200 stipend. It is a great way to get extra experience. No prerequisites. They take students from all around campus. It’s a great professional connection. Application deadline is March 28th. Ccew.ou.edu. they will open their office on the research campus in case people want to get a little experience before applying.

Mark Logsdon, Phi Kappa Sigma consultants talked about their ideal men to contribute to their organization. Asks for the sororities help and support. Send him contact info of your speakers. Contact: Oklahoma@pks.org. He asked for the stereotypes of the fraternity men on campus. He asked what they wanted out of a fraternity man. Give them recommendations of people who fit these superb qualities.

Anna Royce, President welcomed everyone. She talked about Greek Showcase on Friday, March 7. There a general session for all councils and a question and answer section. Then a Greek fair open to each of the chapter. It’s not too late to register if any highschoolers want to come. Sooner Scandals tshirts are on sale CACSS14OU. Tickets go on sale March 11th.
Allison Whitmeyer, VP Programming reminded everyone about Safe Break. It is next Tuesday, March 11 6-8 PM, Molly Shi Boren Ballroom. Panhellenic Delegates help with check in and attendance encourages them to use excel spreadsheets.

Breanna Bober, VP Judicial Affairs talked about the Delta Gamma Anchorman tonight 7-9 in catlett music hall. One spot for judicial board open. She outlines the chapters who can apply.

Kati Harris, VP Administrative Affairs reminds the delegates about mailbox check in sheet- be sure to sign in every week. There are some people who haven’t signed it at all.

Shannon Sherman, VP Finance talked about the invoices to chapters for ALFV Conference, they were given to the pan delegates and also giving them to chapter presidents.

Mackenzie Duffy, VP Public Relations thanked everyone for participating in International Badge Day! Recognized 4.0 women in attendance had a reception for these women. At the reception we made cards for the kids in the Early Birds program.

Christine Williams, VP Community Relations discussed the Health Dash; Sat. March 29th; 1 mile, 5K, 10K, benefits Mid-Del Community Health Clinic; OUHSC Campus. Recruitment Guide Applications online at pan.ou.edu, must be a Junior/Senior to apply. Due March 13th at 3 PM to Student Life. The application requires a recommendation from another chapter.

Jill Tran, Panhellenic Advisor thanks 4.0 students for coming and modeling the way. Academics is a priority among all organizations.

Let’s Learn About Panhellenic! – Presentation about our United Way philanthropy. Christy, from United Way, talks about her job. The first 5 years are the most important for a child. The return investment is $7 for every $1. DHS gives money to Smartstart which gives money to United Way. Actually the fundraising goes into Success by 6. This is a initiative as well. To make sure these kids are safe and healthy. What is Early Birds? They offer classes to parents of kids 0-5. The classes are broken up by age. The families get a bag of materials for their children. There’s a handout for each toy on how to make it a learning tool. Encourages them to bring books to SafeBreak. The parents attending this class need people to watch their children. Will be visiting the chapters in the coming weeks to show them about the United Way Philanthropy.

President Anna Royce adjorned the meeting. The minutes were prepared by Kati Harris.
