University of Oklahoma
Panhellenic Association Council Meeting
January 22, 2014

Roll Call

Guest Speakers:
Molly Bock from Geneologie. Geneologie is a Greek apparel company out of South Carolina. Molly works every chapter on campus. Geneologie has great designs and custom artwork. If you have any questions, text or email her.

Anna Royce, President – Anna welcomes everyone to first Pan meeting. She then gave an update about Alpha Gamma Delta, their fire and their members. She wanted to thank all the chapters because last week was very difficult and all the chapters were helpful and encouraging. Everyone donated baskets. Pan will continue to support Alpha Gam through the coming weeks. Anna then introduced all the Pan Execs and Jess, the Panhellenic Practicum Student. Anna also mentioned the Pan committee applications which are due January 31st. They are for Judicial Board, the United Way Philanthropy Committee, and Recruitment Assistants. All applicants will get an interview on February 12th.

1. Let’s Learn About Panhellenic- we want to start adding this to our meetings. Pan is the umbrella organization over 11 chapters on OU and 26 nationally. Every week we will do something to learn a little more about Panhellenic. Today we will talk about the Creed. Every Pan Exec talks about their favorite part of the Creed and why it stands out to them.

Allison Whitmeyer, VP Programming - Allison explains how SafeBreak works. It’s the week before Spring Break. A family comes and talks about how their daughter passed away on Spring Break. This is the 10th anniversary.

Breanna Bober, VP Judicial Affairs – Breanna talks about the responsibilities and benefits of Judicial Board. They assess Pan standards and give feedback to chapters about their events. She then remind everyone to fill out a judicial board application!

Kati Harris, VP Administrative Affairs – It’s imperative that you check your mailboxes absolutely every week. Also Pan Delegates should be in constant communication with their chapter so they can stay up to date on Pan events!

Shannon Sherman, VP Finance - No Announcements

Mackenzie Duffy, VP Public Relations – Mackenzie talked about chapter promotion via social media. Her main focus is on the Pan twitter account and there will be a forthcoming Facebook. Send Mackenzie an email if someone in a particular chapter does something outstanding. If the delegates would like something publicized, email her! She would also like to highlight a delegate of the week – she will send delegates an email about a “get to know you” so we can highlight a Pan delegate every week!
Christine Williams, VP Community Relations – Talked about the Pink and Black Ball on February 8th from 8PM-Midnight there is a live band, DJ, dancing, photo booth, food, drawings and more! Tickets are $15 dollars in advance, $20 at the door, find them at the Women’s Outreach Center or stubwire.com. Dress in pink and black.
