Roll Call

Guest Speakers:

Jamie Huber, HES Study: Undergraduate Honors Research, asked attendees if they know someone who smokes once a week, ages: 18-25, Contact on posters.

Cindy Reynolds, Hannah Landreth, and Asheema Prunthi, Our Sister’s Closet: Retail Operations, program of the YWCA, domestic violence and sexual assault programs, 24 wrap around programs, shelter, Sister’s Closet, quality retail shop in south OKC, all proceeds go to shelter for all the programs for YWCA, clothing and household items, goal: try to generate awareness about YWCA, area within shop that would appeal to our generation, Hannah and Asheema are a resource for YWCA on OU’s campus, want to form a committee to start a clothing drive. Possibly visit each sorority, contact and information given to Delegates (kick off by February or March).

Hana Johnson, President: Welcomed students to first PAN Meeting and thanked them for their participation in Panhellenic. Then, Hana talked about NPC Education (National Panhellenic Conference), focused on individual sororities, and read information/facts about NPC. Told attendees that she will talk about other councils throughout the next meetings. Hana also reminded the Delegates that applications for PAN Exec (VP Community Relations, VP Finance, VP Public Affairs) were due January 23 (today) at 5 PM. Interviews will be held next week.

Behnoosh Kamali, VP Programming: Talked about Safe Break (March 12th) and that it is a PAN sponsored event. Safe Break is in honor of an OU student to bring awareness of the safety that students should be aware of during Spring Break. Anyone can come to the event. The speaker will be announced next week.

Jenny Pierce, VP Judicial Affairs: Announced that the Judicial Board Committee Applications were out (due February 6th). Judicial Board is open to 6 girls. Jenny sent the application to the President of each chapter, but contact her if anyone wanted to get involved. Lastly, the recently approved events are Delta Delta Delta and SigmaPhi Epsilon’s Coffee Shop (March 5th).

Allison Whitmeyer, VP Administrative Affairs: Reminded the delegates to make sure to check their mailboxes every week. The mailboxes are in the Conoco Wing on the 3rd floor of the Union. There is a sign-in sheet for them to check off next to their chapter’s name. I will be able to see if you have or haven’t checked your mailbox during the week, so make sure to do so. Allison then went over the handout titled, “The ABC’s of Being an Outstanding Panhellenic Delegate.” It was done so to ensure each Delegate understood what was to be expected of them while working with Panhellenic.

Katy Goodrich, VP Recruitment: Told attendees that the applications for Recruitment Assistants and Manual Designer are available. Also reminded delegates to check mailboxes on a weekly basis. Delegates need to check their mailboxes for Informal Recruitment. Katy explained the job descriptions of Recruitment Assistants and Manual Designer. The individuals would need to be in Norman, OK on June 3rd until Formal Recruitment (Full Time Job). Also told them that those in the position will work with Katy throughout the year. And, the First Recruitment meeting is at Kappa Hall on Thursday, February 21 at Kappa Hall at 6:30 p.m. for Recruitment Chairs.

Suzy Kenney, Panhellenic Advisor: Welcomed back students. Excited to get the semester started and thanked all the girls for being there.

This Panhellenic Council meeting was located in the Regents Room of the Oklahoma Memorial Union and lasted from 4:30-5:00. The minutes were prepared by Allison Whitmeyer.