Hana Johnson, President: Thanked the students for coming. First, she talked about the Standards of Excellence. The Standards of Excellence is something that FSSL has developed throughout the years. Hana explained that it is a common set of community standards that our councils strive to live by. She then said that this is a way for FSSL to look at the Officers in the chapters, and then in November, they will turn in documents about their positions. Hana said that on March 15th, the documents for President, Vice President, and New Member are due. Lastly, she talked about Greek Showcase on March 8th. The Greek Showcase is an event put on for prospective students. She described that they will go to a session in the morning and then they will attend various events throughout the afternoon. Panhellenic will be hosting an event for girls to learn more about the Panhellenic Association. Prospective students will come to a few houses and Hana wanted to make sure that the houses would be willing to participate.

Behnoosh Kamali, VP Programming: Behnoosh stated that the Safe Breakdate is March 13th at 6 PM. She also wanted the Panhellenic Delegates to tell their chapters that a tank will be coming out soon and she encourages everyone to buy one.

Jenny Pierce, VP Judicial Affairs: First, Jenny talked about the various Approved Events that will be coming up in the next few weeks. These events are: Delta Gamma Anchorman on February 27th, Pi Kappa Alpha’s Empathy Diner on February 28th, Tri Delta and Sig Ep’s Coffeehouse on March 5th, and BYX’s Date Auction on March 6th. Next, Jenny announced that she had selected Judicial Board. She thanked all of those girls who had applied and appreciated for their want to get involved in Panhellenic. Next, she said each girls name who had been elected to her Judicial Board: Breanna Bober, Haley Mowdy, Lindsey Dahlin, Paige McIlroy, Alyssa Peterson, and Shelby Breit.

Allison Whitmeyer, VP Administrative Affairs: Told the Panhellenic Delegates to continue to check their mailboxes. If they hadn’t checked their mailboxes this week, they need to go after the Panhellenic Council Meeting. Asked Panhellenic Delegates about Safe Break and bringing computers to help sign in their chapter members. Then, she told them that she was almost done with the Panhellenic Delegate and Panhellenic Exec “Get To Know You Sheet”. Lastly, she made sure that all the Panhellenic Delegates were getting their emails.

Anna Royce, VP Finance: Anna had no announcements for the Panhellenic Council Meeting.
Mackenzie Duffy, VP Public Relations: Mackenzie announced the Panhellenic Delegate in the Spotlight: Caitlyn Kayser. She read her information sheet to the attendees. Next, she read about Alpha Phi, which she had chosen to be the Chapter in the Spotlight.

Katie Mathewson, VP Community Relations: Katie explained the Dainty Hooligan Instagram competition that will be going on between sororities. She let the attendees know that the chapter that gives the most shoutouts to Dainty Hooligan on Instagram will allow each member to get a $10 gift card to their store. If they wanted more information, there were flyers at the front of the room. She reminded everyone to sign up for Soonerthon, which is on March 9th. Next, she mentioned that the Mother of the Year Applications are out and are due on March 1st. Katie then said that there will be a Greek Ally Training Session on March 5th from 5-7 PM. If anyone wants to attend Greek Ally, they can register online. Lastly, she reminded attendees to sign up for the Big Event because the last day to sign up is on Friday at 5 PM.
