2. Panhellenic Creed
   a. Favorite line from the creed is “...for serving to the best of our ability, our college community.” Serves as a blanket statement for all of life. This is something I want to exemplify throughout the year.

Madeline Bull, VP Programming
1. SafeBreak will be March 10, 2015 from 6:00-8:00 p.m.
   a. SafeBreak is scheduled for March 10, the Tuesday before Spring Break. SafeBreak is a great experience and there will be more details to come.

2. Panhellenic Creed
   a. Favorite line of the creed is, “Cooperation for furthering fraternity life, in harmony with its best possibilities...” Chose this line because it focuses on goal setting and looking ahead.
Emma Hutchison, VP Judicial Affairs
1. Judicial Board applications due January 22.
   a. Judicial board applications are due tomorrow. Five people serve on this committee and we do a lot of different things, one of those being attending philanthropy events. Freshmen are more than welcome to apply.
2. Panhellenic Creed
   a. Favorite line from the creed is “The opportunity for wide and wise human service, through mutual respect and helpfulness...” Chose this line because sometimes we get caught up in ourselves but it’s important we remember that we need to help others.

Tory Looney, VP Administrative Affairs
1. Mailboxes
   a. Our Panhellenic mailboxes are located on the third floor in the Conoco building and if you ever need to get something to any Pan exec member or a specific chapter you can place it in their specific mailbox. Pan Delegates and exec members will check them weekly.
2. Panhellenic Creed
   a. Favorite line of the creed is, “Cooperation for furthering fraternity life, in harmony with its best possibilities, is the ideal that shall guide our fraternity activities.” Chose this line because when overseeing the Pan Dels it is important to remember to work in harmony and cooperate with one another.
