   a. “During rounds 1, 2, 3 and 4, chapters may place a water station outside their chapter facility, but items offered are limited to ice water and towels. Corporate fans are permitted. All chapters must use a white tablecloth for their wash station.”
   b. “Chapters are eligible for spring informal recruitment if their chapter total is below Panhellenic total after the fall semester. The following rules only apply to chapters participating in spring informal recruitment.”
      i. Chapters participating are required to attend the spring recruitment information session. If a chapter does not attend, they will not have access to informal recruitment forms from the Panhellenic office.
      ii. Chapters may not sign spring membership recruitment acceptance binding agreements until the spring informal recruitment has occurred. The spring formal recruitment event happens the first 2 weeks of classes.”
   c. “Videos are permitted to be released in the following in the following mediums: Facebook account of the chapter, Twitter account of the chapter, Instagram account of chapter, and website of the chapter.
      i. If a PR video is released after March 1st, the Panhellenic Judicial Board will consider such videos to be geared towards recruitment or to be targeting potential new members and the Vice President of Judicial Affairs, President, Panhellenic Advisor each possess and right to have the chapter remove the video, as Panhellenic shall be solely responsible for a formal recruitment related advertising, as stated in our bylaws.”
