Creed
Roll Call
Guest Speakers:

1. OU Athletics Department, Hannah Smith and Kari Simmons
   a. Greek Challenges
      i. Thursday, Volleyball, vs. USC #8 in the country, most attendance wins flat screen T.V.
      ii. Friday night, 7 p.m., Non-Greeks can sign under your chapter, chapter with most attendance wins $250

2. OU Law, Trudy Sickles
   a. Wanted to give a face to OU Law. Should you or any of your members be interested in a OU law we would be more than happy to schedule a tour, a meeting with an advisor and let them sit in on a class. On Oct. 20 and Jan. 28 (5:30-7) come chat with faculty, current students and the admissions team. To get an invitation you just need to send me your name and email address.
   b. OU junior and seniors are welcome to attend the OU law reception on Oct. 14 at 4-6 p.m. at the University Club. OU Law is a best-valued law school—great recognition at a reasonable price. If you would like to come to the reception just email Trudy Sickles!

3. Bobby Jones, 1040i
   a. Based out of Norman for the last 5 years. We do work primarily in West Africa.
      i. Backpack initiative:
         1. Fill these backpacks with pencils, pens, rulers, pencil sharpeners, etc. We’ll hand them out when we’re there.
   b. Oldest male child is normally the only one who goes to school. We started the backpack program to get school supplies to all students, because without supplies they won’t/can’t go to school.
   c. Next summer: June 18 - July 2 we’re doing a college-aged trip to the bilingual academy we built last year, there are educational and medical volunteer opportunities.
   d. Story: On a trip to the Ivory Coast we ran into this little boy who was burned 7 years ago. He had no access to medical care and his foot was fused to his leg. He couldn’t walk so Dr. Jay did a difficult surgery to remedy his deformity. Three years ago we went back and Dr. Jay got to play soccer with the little boy.
