

CW 1012 - Interviewing and Engagement Skills for Children

Level I
August 18-20, 2009

PRESENTED BY:

Gerald Peters spent 14 years working for the Oklahoma Department of Human Services both in Child Welfare and Juvenile Services. While in Child Welfare he was a worker and supervisor with expertise in prevention, CPS, permanency planning, and adoption. He also has extensive courtroom experience in the area of child abuse and neglect and is a certified child sexual abuse specialist. Gerald has been a private consultant/trainer for Child Welfare CORE, Level One and Level Two training as well as Resource Family training for foster parents for over 5 years.

Tracy Koelling, has worked in the field of Child Protection for the past thirteen years. She began her career in Juvenile Residential Treatment but moved to Child Abuse Investigation in 1999 when she moved to Oklahoma and worked in Family Services at the Absentee Shawnee Tribe of OK. Ms Koelling then worked as a Child Abuse Investigator for OKDHS Child Welfare. She further specialized her skills by becoming a Forensic Interviewer at the Mary Abbott Children's House, the Cleveland County CAC. She has interviewed more than 900 children in her career and often testifies in criminal and deprived courts.

TRAINING SITE:

Downtown DoubleTree Tulsa
Gilcrease Room
