Permanency Tools for Permanency Partners

Course Description:
This training stresses the relevance of the permanency journey beginning at removal and explores the impact that each program has on the achievement of permanency. This training focuses on components of the practice model relevant to CPS, Adoption, and Foster Care staff such as intentional visitation, initial meetings, family team meetings, diligent searches, monthly worker visits, the impact of removal and multiple placements, and trauma services. This information is delivered through lecture, class discussion, videos, and group activities.
