Eleanor Lottingville, PhD has her doctorate in psychology from the University of Oklahoma. She was in private practice for twelve years with a focus on trauma and disaster, along with individual, family and marital issues. She worked with the Edmond Post Office massacre in 1986 and has done debriefings for the Oklahoma City Fire Department, the Oklahoma City Police Department and for eleven years provided debriefing services around the state for the Department of Human Services in deaths of children in abuse and neglect cases. She was in charge of the death notification teams for the American Red Cross following the bombing of the Alfred P. Murrah Federal Building.

TRAINING SITE:

Moore Norman Technology Center
Health Building
Room H202
4701 12th Avenue NW
Norman, OK 73069

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This workshop is designed specifically for Child Welfare Workers and Supervisors who work with fatality cases. Participants will review policy and procedures in dealing with child fatality cases. CW workers who work with child fatality cases face a great deal of stress and related feelings due to the trauma of the case. Participants will be given information on methods of handling the pressure of child fatality cases.

TRAINING GROUP:

Participation is limited to 35 participants who have been referred by their Supervisors and have completed CORE.

WORKSHOP HOURS:

Registration at 9:30 a.m.

Day 1: 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Participants are reminded that anyone missing more than 30 minutes of a workshop may not receive full credit for the workshop.

CANCELLATION:

PLEASE DON'T BE A NO-SHOW. If you find you cannot attend after you have registered, please e-mail childwelfaretraining@okdhs.org.
