LEARNING MANAGEMENT SYSTEM

Welcome to the OKDHS Learning Management System

Important Notice to Employees

Certain OKDHS facilities are operated on a 24-hour basis with multiple shifts. In order to make e-training available to all employees, this web-based training module is available 24 hours a day.

FLSA non-exempt employees of OKDHS are NOT authorized to access or complete e-training modules outside of assigned duty hours without prior supervisory authorization. FLSA non-exempt employees of OKDHS must correctly record all time performing e-training modules on the ADM-4-N.

Clicking the "I Understand" button acknowledges your understanding of this notice and indicates your intent to comply with the guidelines the notice outlines.

You are about to access the course:

Understanding Substance Abuse Disorders, Treatment and Family Recovery: A Guide for Child Welfare Professionals

-Created by the National Center on Substance Abuse and Child Welfare.

Because this course is not hosted by the OKDHS Learning Management System (LMS), you will be required to create a separate user account and log-in to the course separately.

TO RECEIVE CREDIT FOR THIS COURSE IN THE OKDHS LMS YOU MUST USE YOUR OKDHS UNUMBER AND E-MAIL ADDRESS.

To access the course click the link below. If you are a new user you will need to click Register on the NCSACW page. When registering, ensure that you use your UNumber (U99999) as your User Name and your OKDHS e-mail address (first.last@okdhs.org) as your e-mail address. Complete the rest of the registration information. The course that you should select at the bottom of the Registration page is the second course: A Guide for Child Welfare Professionals.

You will receive credit for completing this course in the OKDHS LMS about one week after completing the course. If you have questions about the log-on process, or this course, contact the help desk using the information below.

The Utah Division of Child and Family Services has created a Participant Workbook and a Supervisor Handbook that can be used in conjunction with the online course. Click the links below to access a copy of the Participant Workbook or Supervisor Handbook.
