FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FJJMA Museum Association Announces King Tut Trip

NORMAN – This spring, members of the Fred Jones Jr. Museum of Art Association will get a chance to learn more about the mysterious life and death of King Tut as part of the annual spring museum trip.

At 8 a.m. on Thursday, April 2, Museum Association members will charter a bus and head to the Dallas Museum of Art to view the new “Tutankhamun and the Golden Age of the Pharaohs” exhibit. The day tour includes lunch at El Fenix Mexican restaurant near the Dallas arts district. The deadline for reservations is Feb. 5.

“Please join us for this exceptional day,” said Mary Jane Rutherford, community relations officer for the museum. “Starting with a luncheon in a historic restaurant and finishing with a tour showcasing the life and times of King Tutankhamun, this is a day you will not want to miss.”

The cost of the tour is $95 for Association members and $105 for non-members. The price includes round-trip transportation, snacks, lunch, exhibition admission fees and audio tour at the museum.

Refunds will not be given after March 5, and only if there is a substitute person from the waiting list available to go on the tour. An administrative fee of $20 will be deducted from all refunds.

Reservations are available only by mailing in a completed form and check or credit card number. The form and additional information about the exhibition are available online at www.ou.edu/fjjma under Membership and Museum Trip, or by phone at (405) 325-2297.
