

The University of Oklahoma
Norman, Oklahoma 73019

Ballet Position Available

- POSITION: Nine month, tenure track faculty position in Ballet at the assistant or associate professor level beginning Fall 2010.
- SALARY: Competitive salary.
- QUALIFICATIONS: MFA degree in Dance with emphasis in Ballet and a minimum of six years teaching experience or professional performance background of at least six years with established ballet company and a minimum of six years teaching experience at the advanced level. Ability to teach all levels of ballet technique, Teaching Methods, and ability to choreograph and/or stage works from repertoire.
- RESPONSIBILITIES: Applicants with teaching ability and experience in the following will be given further consideration: Character Dance, Repertoire, Pas de Deux, Men's Technique, Men's Variations, Understanding Dance and Ballet Pantomime.
- INFORMATION: The School of Dance offers BFA and MFA degrees with major emphasis on performing and the training of highly competitive dancers. The programs are also committed to providing a strong educational background in teaching and choreography. Degrees are offered in ballet performance or pedagogy and modern dance. Performances are given on campus as well as in state, regional and international tours. The department serves approximately ninety majors and resides in the College of Fine Arts. The University of Oklahoma has an enrollment of over twenty-five thousand students and is located fifteen miles from Oklahoma City.
- APPLICATION: Please submit a letter of application, complete vita and three recent (not more than one year old) letters of recommendation to:
Prof. Steve Brule, Search Committee Chair
School of Dance
560 Parrington Oval Rm 1000
Norman, OK 73019
- Videotapes of teaching and/or choreography may be requested during the search process. Screening of applicants will begin on February 1, 2010 and the position will remain open until filled. For additional information please call (405) 325-4455 or (405) 325-5328.

The University of Oklahoma is an equal opportunity institution.