

The Friends of the University of Oklahoma Biological Station
Oct. 18-20, 2013 Celebration and Business Meeting
Draft Agenda

Friday, 18 Oct. 2013

1:00- 5:00 Registration in main office/library (non-auction benefit sale and Live auction preview in library)
2:00-3:30 Executive Board Meeting (Library)
5:30-7:00 Mixer/Social Hour in lobby/porch of Brillhart Hall
7:00-8:00 Dinner
8:00 Welcome – Kim Hauger & Gary Wellborn (Cafeteria/Brillhart Hall)
8:30 – Social/Visiting Hour & Research Poster Session (Main Building Lobby, non-auction benefit sale in library)

Saturday, 19 Oct. 2013

7:00-8:00 Breakfast
8:00-9:00 Live auction previews, and benefit sale in library
9:00-12:00 PROGRAM in the library
9:00-10:00 "How to prevent exposure to vector borne diseases while enjoying the outdoors" by Dr. Ken Gage, Chief of flea borne diseases CDC
10:00 – 10:30 Question period
10:30-11:30 "The monarch butterfly: an enduring mystery" by Richard K. Walton, Naturalist, Director Monarch Monitoring Project, author, originator of "Birding by Ear"
11:30-12:00 Question period, field walk for monarchs
12:00-1:00 Lunch

1:00-2:00 FUOBS Meeting
2:00-3:00 Snake demo outdoors and live auction previews in library
3:00-5:00 Live Auction (Library)
3:00 – Coffee break items available in the lobby
5:00-6:30 – Socializing
6:30-7:30 Banquet
7:30 - Raffle drawings, informal socializing, benefit sale in library
9:30 – Wrap up of benefit sales in library

Sunday, 20 October 2013

PRE-breakfast birding on Station grounds with Richard K Walton and Julia Yoshida
7:30-9:00 Breakfast
8:15 Executive Committee Meeting

Departure