Title: AN ACT AMENDING CONGRESSIONAL BILL 710101 (AN ACT ESTABLISHING A UOSA STATEMENT OF ACADEMIC INTEGRITY AND AN HONOR COUNCIL)

Section 1: This Act shall be known and may be cited as The Honor Council Member Act.

Section 2: PURPOSE. The purpose of this Act is to modify the membership of the Honor Council.

Section 3: AMENDMENT. Strike select portions of Section 4B of Congressional Bill 710101 and replace said portions with the following, renumbering accordingly.

Old Section: B. Composition
1. MEMBERSHIP. There shall be fifteen (15) voting members of the Council. Unless a member is removed according to item (7) of this subsection or by impeachment, membership shall be for the duration of a member's membership in the UOSA.

New Section: B. Composition:
1) MEMBERSHIP. The council shall be composed of 23 members. Unless a member is removed according to item (7) of this subsection or by impeachment, membership shall be a two-year term. If a member wishes to continue to serve on the Council, the member must re-apply, and the second term he shall serve will be limited to only 1 year.

9) The council shall have the power to modify the membership requirements and the specifics of membership as the need arises.

Section 4: This Act shall become effective when passed in accordance with the UOSA Constitution.
