

NATIONAL SCHOLARSHIPS INFORMATION

Following is a list of national scholarships with web addresses and basic information. Please note that all but two (marked with an asterisk) are for graduate school.

Fulbright Grants: Sponsors approximately 650 awards for overseas study annually. Deadline: September. <http://www.iie.org>. Contact Karl Rambo, 325-1999, krambo@ou.edu.

Gates Cambridge: Enables study at Cambridge University for one, two, three, or four years. Applicants must first apply to Cambridge by mid-October. <http://www.gates.scholarships.cam.ac.uk>.

*Goldwater: Students apply their sophomore or junior year; for those who intend to pursue careers in mathematics, the natural sciences, or engineering (not medical school students who plan to work in private practice). Campus deadline: November. <http://www.act.org/goldwater>.

Luce: The Luce Scholars Program provides stipends and internships for eighteen young Americans to live and work in Asia each year. Those who already have significant experience in Asia or Asian studies are not eligible for the Luce Scholars Program. Deadline: early December. <http://www.hluce.org/4prdesfm.html>.

Marshall: Enables study for two years in any university in the United Kingdom. Deadline: October. <http://www.marshallscholarship.org>.

George J. Mitchell Scholarships: For students 18-30 years old who will receive a bachelor's by the time they take up the scholarship. Enables study for one year at any of the seven universities in the Republic of Ireland or the two in Northern Ireland. Deadline: October. <http://www.us-irelandalliance.org>, click on "Scholarships."

Rhodes: For students 18-24 years old who will receive a BA by the time they take up the scholarship. Enables study for two years at Oxford University, England. Campus deadline: September. <http://www.rhodesscholar.org>.

Rotary Ambassadorial Scholarships: Rotary provides several different kinds of scholarships for study abroad. Students must be sponsored by a local Rotary Club. Deadlines vary.
