INSTRUCTIONAL EVALUATION – NORMAN CAMPUS

As recommended by the Norman Campus Faculty Senate, there shall be a program of continuing instructional evaluation on the Norman Campus that includes course evaluation by students. Each college or other Provost-direct unit offering instruction shall maintain a process of evaluation suitable to the college's or academic unit's instructional activities.

This evaluation process shall 1) provide feedback to the instructor on his/her instruction and 2) provide information to chairs. Directors and Committee A in order to assess the quality of instruction within the academic unit and allow for appropriate recognition of excellent instruction.

(Faculty Senate, 2-14-72; Regents, 12-14-72)

PUBLICATION OF COURSE EVALUATIONS

Upon written consent of individual faculty members, UOSA will assemble five questions selected by each college and make them available to students by publication. For specific information about this process, contact your college dean's office or UOSA.
