

Regulations and Bylaws

- Section I. The Buddhist Association agrees to abide by all applicable rules and regulations pertaining to clubs and organizations as stated in the Student Handbook.
- Section II. Any Buddhist Association member has the authority to check the files and financial records of the Buddhist Association.
- Section III. Any Buddhist Association member has the right to petition.
- Section IV. The resignation of any Governing Committee member shall be accepted by the Committee. The fact will be announced to the Buddhist Association members at the Special Meeting or the next General Meeting.
- Section V. Notices of resignation must be given by the resigning Governing Committee member to the Governing Committee in writing at least one month in advance.
- Section VI. Any Committee member may be terminated for negligence of duty upon proper justification and recommendation by the majority vote of the Governing Committee at the Special Meeting.