PROFESSIONAL POSITIONS

The University of Oklahoma, Norman

Harold J. & Ruth Newman Chair of US-China Issues
Associate, then Full Professor of International & Area Studies

2006 →
2006, 2012 →

Institute for US-China Issues, Founder and Director

Engages in research and outreach activities that seek to better understand and improve US-China relations. The focus is on the deeper structure of the bilateral relationship: its dynamics of security and insecurity, perception and misperception, trust and mistrust. The Institute conducts and supports academic research that has policy relevant implications, seeking to shape the broader national debate on US China policy. It also promotes China studies in the state of Oklahoma through student scholarships and faculty grants.

The US-China Diplomatic Dialogue (USCDD), Founder and Director

An annual track 1.5 dialogue for mid-career US and PRC diplomats that seeks to generate mutual trust and improve U.S.-China relations. Creates an informal atmosphere outside of Washington and Beijing in which participants can establish personal relationships while frankly exchanging their views about bilateral relations. The 9th annual USCDD will be held in Norman, OK fall 2016.

The Newman Prize for Chinese Literature, Founder and Director

Awarded biennially in recognition of outstanding achievement in prose or poetry written in Chinese that best captures the human condition, and is conferred solely on the basis of literary merit. The $10,000 prize is the only major award for Chinese literature based in the Anglophone world. Chinese novelist Mo Yan won the inaugural Newman Prize in 2009, and went on to win the Nobel Prize in Literature in 2012.

2008 →

The University of Colorado, Boulder

Assistant Professor of Political Science

2001 → 2006

The Sino-American Security Dialogue (SASD), Founder and Director

An annual track II dialogue for Chinese and American security analysts. Supported by the Ford Foundation, SASD met annually for seven years, helping build a Sino-American community of academic and think tank security experts. SASD alumni have gone on to hold major positions in both the US and PRC foreign policy bureaucracies.

2002 → 2008

The Ohio State University, Mershon Center for International Security Studies

Postdoctoral research fellow

1999 → 2001
