
WLT

AVAILABLE SYMPOSIA REPRINTS AND RECENT SPECIAL ISSUES

1. J.M.G. Le Clézio. AUTUMN '97
2. The Baltic Literatures in the 1990s. SPRING '98
3. Hebrew Literature in the 1990s. SUMMER '98
4. Nuruddin Farah. AUTUMN '98
5. Contemporary Canadian Literature(s). SPRING '99
6. Czesław Miłosz. AUTUMN '99
7. Malaysia, Singapore, and the Philippines. SPRING '00
8. David Malouf. AUTUMN '00
9. V. S. Naipaul. SPRING '02
10. Roberto Fernández Retamar. SUMMER/AUTUMN '02
11. Álvaro Mutis. JULY–SEPTEMBER '03

$12 Each. Foreign Postage: $5 Canada; $8 Elsewhere

World Literature Today

University of Oklahoma

630 Parrington Oval, Suite 110

Norman, OK 73019-4033

USA

www.ou.edu/worldlit

COMING UP IN THE JANUARY 2004 ISSUE OF WLT:

- ◆ A special section on South African writer J. M. Coetzee
- ◆ Poetry by David Huerta (Mexico) and Tanure Ojaide (Nigeria), plus fiction by Nikita Filatov (Russia)
- ◆ Chicano author Rudolfo Anaya on “The Innocente”
- ◆ Aleš Debeljak on the neo-avant-garde in Slovenia
- ◆ J. Madison Davis on the global popularity of crime fiction
- ◆ Liedeke Plate on the reading self in Annie Leclerc and Phyllis Rose
- ◆ Plus travel, children’s literature, letters from readers, and world literature in review