

CONTENTS

WORLD LITERATURE TODAY

JANUARY – FEBRUARY 2006

VOL. 81, NO. 1

OFF THE AIR

Alan Cheuse reviews Haruki Murakami, Pauls Toutonghi, and Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie 6

INTERNATIONAL CRIME & MYSTERY

Sister Fidelma and a Wealth of Broken Noses:
A Survey of Irish Crime Writing 8

SPECIAL FEATURE: MODERN IRELAND

Featuring work and commentary by Paula Meehan, John F. Deane, Leanne O'Sullivan, Paul Muldoon, Miriam Gallagher, Gemma Tipton, and Nainsí J. Houston 11

ARTS & CULTURE

Interview with filmmaker Ismaël Ferroukhi 34
Art museums in the age of expansion 38

FICTION

The Wind from the East, by Almudena Grandes 43
"The Bearded Man," by Ala Hlehel 48

POETRY

George Evans and Anna Frajlich 52

ESSAY

David Williams explores Arab-American literature in the 21st century 55

CHILDREN'S LITERATURE

Author Profile: Eoin Colfer 64

"Above all, I am interested in silence, which is the most universal language."

– Ismaël Ferroukhi, page 34

IN EVERY ISSUE

- 3 LETTERS
- 5 EDITOR'S NOTE
- 65 WORLD LITERATURE IN REVIEW
- 80 OUTPOSTS: GALWAY, IRELAND