It is an exciting time to be a student at OU:

OU continues to attract the state’s and nation’s top students. The class of 2015 has a record-high ACT/SAT average of 26. Also in this class, there are 509 students who graduated with a 4.0 high school grade point average (that’s about one in eight students).

OU continues to be #1 in the nation among public universities in the number of freshman National Merit Scholars — 207 enrolled in this year’s freshman class and over 700 total at OU!

OU’s student to instructor ratio is now 18:1 and all English Composition classes are limited to 19 students.

ENROLLMENT
The University of Oklahoma enrolls more than 30,000 students total on its campuses in Norman and Oklahoma City as well as the Schusterman Center in Tulsa. OU also offers courses throughout the state and around the world through the College of Continuing Education.

EDUCATION ABROAD
The University of Oklahoma is a leader among all universities in international exchange and study abroad programs. We offer programs in over 50 countries and 100 cities on six continents!

STUDENT LIFE
All students have the opportunity to get involved at OU!
With more than 400 student organizations, including professional, social, religious, political and cultural groups, everyone can find a niche. At OU, we understand the importance of giving back. For that reason, we have an entire office on campus devoted to helping students find ways to serve our community.
The $17.8 million renovation of the Norman campus student union includes a student leadership wing, allowing student organizations to have offices side by side and enhancing opportunities for cooperation and teamwork.

CAMPUS CONSTRUCTION
Since 1994, almost $2 billion in construction projects have been completed, are underway on OU’s three campuses. Among the projects are $163 million for student housing and dining halls; $122 million in projects at the Gaylord Family-Oklahoma Memorial Stadium; the $42.2 million Devon Energy Hall and Rawn Engineering Practice Facility; the $36.9 million Gaylord Hall for the Gaylord College of Journalism and Mass Communication; the $12.4 million Lissa and Cy Wagner Student Academic Services Center; a $33 million renovation for the College of Architecture; a $9.5 million addition for the Jeannine Rainbolt College of Education; a $4.4 million renovation for the Thorpe Multicultural Center; the $13 million Stuart Wing at Fred Jones Jr. Museum of Art; and the $11.4 million for the School of Social Work. Major new academic and research facilities have also been constructed on OU’s Research Campus, including the $27 million Stephenson Research and Technology Center; the $67 million National Weather Center; and the recently completed $76 million Stephenson Life Sciences Research Center.
