  - The eleven (11) elected spring positions are Concert Series, Crew, Executive Vice-Chair, Executive Secretary, Executive Treasurer, Film Series, Mom’s Day, Public Relations, Sooner Scandals, Special Events, and Speakers Bureau.

- Section 9. Executive Chair Election
  - The Executive Chair will be elected in the spring by popular vote of the student body. The CAC Chair election regulations will be outlined and determined by the SGA spring election chair.

Article XI: Election Process

- Section 1. Term
  - The term of office of the council members shall be twelve months, lasting two full academic semesters, except for the filling of vacancies.

- Section 2. Presence
  - All applicants must be present at interviews unless absent for a school related event in which their application may be considered during elections.

- Section 3. Voting
  - To vote for a position, a council member in good standing must hear all applicant interviews for that position.

- Section 4. Ballots
  - Voting takes place via secret ballot. A ranking system allocates points in the following manner: the maximum number of candidates, up to three, must be ranked numerically for a ballot to be considered. Candidates receive an inversely proportionate amount of points for the number on the ballot. The candidate with rank one (1) receives three (3) points, the candidate with rank two (2) receives two (2) points, and the candidate with rank three (3) receives one (1) point. The winner is the candidate that receives the highest number of points.

- Section 5. Candidate Rankings
  - Should a candidate be elected to more than one position, then the position ranked highest on the candidate’s application is received.

- Section 6. Abstain
  - Council members have the option to abstain from voting but must allocate no votes for any candidate and write abstain on the secret ballot.

Article XII: Financial Procedures

- Section 1. Categories of Funding
  - All funding for events must fall into one of the following five categories.
    1. CAC Funding
      - Funds initially allocated to an event from the master CAC account at the beginning of a chair’s term qualify as CAC funding. All events have CAC funding, which is primarily restricted to inside accounts only.
2. Donation
   a. Funding secured for the stated purpose of supporting a charitable or philanthropic cause qualify as donations. Only Soonerthon may designate funds as donations, which are restricted to the Soonerthon outside account only. After expenses have been paid for the event all funds in the Soonerthon outside account, including donations, sponsorship, and other funds will be paid to the Children’s Miracle Network.

3. Membership Fee
   a. Funds that purchase a right to membership for a designated period of time qualify as membership fees.

4. Ticket Fee
   a. Funds that purchase a right to admission to a University Sing or Sooner Scandals performance qualify as ticket fees. Only University Sing and Sooner Scandals have funds designated as ticket fees, which are restricted to the contingency account only.

5. Sponsorship and Other Funds
   a. Funds secured from sources inside or outside of the university to facilitate the execution of an event qualify in this category. All events may designate funds as sponsorship. Examples include funds associated with t-shirt sales from an event such as Mom’s Day, tickets for a luncheon during Dad’s Day, or access to tables during Howdy Week.

• Section 2. Accounts
  o Funds placed in inside accounts include CAC funds and sponsorship and other funds. Funds placed in outside accounts include donations, membership fees, and sponsorship and other funds. Funds placed in the contingency account include but are not limited to all ticket fees. Checks issued to any name including “University of Oklahoma” or “OU” must be deposited in the inside account and do not qualify as a donation or membership fee. The only funds that roll over after the completion of an event or program are funds designated as membership fees. All other funds will be reset to the amounts enumerated in Section 5 at the beginning of said chair’s term provided there exist sufficient funds.

• Section 3. SGA Eligibility
  o CAC funds allocated to Concert Series, Film Series, and Speakers Bureau must be spent on SGA eligible items.

• Section 4. Retreat Spending
  o CAC retreats must cost at maximum $5,000 per semester. Compliance is the responsibility of the CAC Treasurer.

- Section 6. Individual Petition
  o Each chair is reserved the right to request additional funding from CAC for individual years events if monies are available and the chair can produce viable need for said funding.

- Section 7. Perpetual Petition
  o Each chair is reserved the right to request a change in the beginning funding budgeted for an event, perpetually, if said chair can produce sufficient need for the change.

- Section 8. Amendment
  o CAC reserves the right to change the beginning funding budgeted for an event, but must produce sufficient need for the change and notify any affected event chairs.

- Section 9. Equipment Checkout
  o Only an event’s Vice Chair or Chair can check out equipment from CAC. Upon checkout, a financial form and a supply checkout form must be filled out and signed by the individual checking out the equipment and by the event’s advisor. For each day that the equipment is not turned in after the due date, $20 will be taken from the individual’s personal account. This amount will be charged for up to five (5) business days after the due date. After five (5) business days, the item(s) is/are declared lost, and the full amount of the item(s)’ value (minus the $100 that has already been paid in fines) will be taken from the event’s account. If a lost item(s)’ value is less than or equal to $100, then the late fines will be considered as adequate payment for the item’s replacement. If the item(s) is/are knowingly lost before the five-day window, then the full amount of the item(s)’ value will be taken from the event’s account, and no additional fines will be assessed.

Article XIII: Amendments

- Section 1. Process
  - This Constitution, as well as the CAC by-laws, may be amended by presenting the changes at least one week in advance via email or general meeting before the meeting when the vote will take place.

- Section 2. Voting
  - A two-thirds majority vote is necessary for an amendment to pass.

Article XIV: Disclaimer

- Any part and/or parts of this Constitution and/or by-laws found to be inaccurate or conflicting with the rules and regulations set forth by policies of the University of Oklahoma shall not affect validity of the remaining parts.
