

The African Studies Institute and Department of African & African American Studies present

Rethinking Expertise and Ingenuity in Africa

A conversation with

Dr. Michael Ralph

Associate Professor of Social and Cultural Analysis, New York University

Tuesday, March 23, 5-6 p.m.

Please register for the Zoom webinar at <https://bit.ly/38tbBBQ>.

Dr. Ralph will draw from extensive fieldwork in Senegal, Eritrea, and the US to demonstrate forms of expertise and ingenuity that young people in both contexts are developing to take advantage of emerging trends in aesthetics, finance, and technology and to grapple with generational political challenges.
