I. CORE CURRICULUM (15 hours)
   a. IAS 5113 Field Seminar in International Studies
   b. IAS 5503 Theory and Practice of International Politics
   c. IAS 5053 Global History
   d. IAS 5523 Global Political Economy
   e. 3 hours of research tools and methods. Choose one from the following:
      i. BAD 5033 Statistical Modeling for Decision-Making
      ii. ECON 5023 Statistics for Decision-Making
      iii. PSC 5913 Intro to the Analysis of Political and Administrative Data
      iv. SOC 5283 Advanced Sociological Statistics
      v. GEOG 5453 Geographic Information Systems
      vi. Advanced foreign language

II. CONCENTRATIONS (choose 9 hours in one concentration from a list as approved by the student’s advisory committee)
   a. Global Economics and Development
      i. ANTH 5303 Women and Development in Africa
      ii. BAD 5112 Global Economics
      iii. IAS 5273 Survey of International Economics
      iv. ECON 5613 International Economics (Trade)
      v. ECON 5633 International Economics (Finance)
      vi. ECON 5853 World Economic Development
      vii. IAS 5323 Political Economy of Development
      viii. PSC 5563 International Political Economy
      ix. PSC 5573 Political Economy of Emerging Nations
      x. PSC 5613 Political Economy of Industrial Democracies
      xi. PSC 5673 Comparative Political Economy
      xii. SOC 5943 Inequality in a Global Perspective xiii. ECON G4713 Latin American Economic Development

   b. Global Security Studies
      i. IAS 5043 Global Security
      ii. IAS 5223 European Security
      iii. IAS 5940 Arab-Israeli Conflict
      iv. PSC 5553 International Security
      v. IAS 5033 International Human Rights
      vi. IAS 5013 International Law
      vii. IAS 5003 U.S. Foreign Relations viii. PSC 5523 Morality and Foreign Policy
      ix. PSC 5543 International Organizations and Regimes
      x. PSC 5623 International Terrorism
      xi. IAS 5940 Low Intensity Conflict
      xii. IAS 5940 National Security Policy xiii. IAS 5940 Small Wars Low Intensity Conflict III. ELECTIVES (9 hours)
Electives may be chosen from International and Area Studies, Anthropology, Economics, Education, Geography, History, Philosophy, Political Science, Sociology or other departments, as approved by the student’s advisory committee (may include advanced language, advanced research tool or internship credit).

IV. RESEARCH AND PRACTICUM (3 hours, choose one of the following options)
a. IAS 5980  MA thesis
b. IAS 5923 Policy Exercise
c. IAS 5913 International Internship (if internship was not applied to elective hours)
MASTER OF ARTS IN INTERNATIONAL STUDIES (MAIS) OPTION IN AREA STUDIES
(course substitutions may be approved by the student’s advisory committee)
Availability subject to change

I. CORE CURRICULUM (15 hours)
   a. IAS 5113 Field Seminar in International Studies
   b. IAS 5503 Theory and Practice of International Politics
   c. IAS 5053 Global History
   d. IAS 5523 Global Political Economy
   e. 3 hours of research tools and methods. Choose one from the following:
      i. BAD 5033 Statistical Modeling for Decision-Making
      ii. ECON 5023 Statistics for Decision-Making
      iii. PSC 5913 Intro to the Analysis of Political and Administrative Data
      iv. SOC 5283 Advanced Sociological Statistics
      v. GEOG 5453 Geographic Information Systems
      vi. Advanced foreign language

II. CONCENTRATIONS (choose 6 hours in one concentration from a list as approved by the student’s advisory committee)
   a. Global Economics and Development
      i. ANTH 5303 Women and Development in Africa
      ii. BAD 5112 Global Economics
      iii. IAS 5273 Survey of International Economics
      iv. ECON 5613 International Economics (Trade)
      v. ECON 5633 International Economics (Finance)
      vi. ECON 5853 World Economic Development
      vii. IAS 5323 Political Economy of Development
      viii. PSC 5563 International Political Economy
      ix. PSC 5573 Political Economy of Emerging Nations
      x. PSC 5613 Political Economy of Industrial Democracies
      xi. PSC 5673 Comparative Political Economy
      xii. SOC 5943 Inequality in a Global Perspective
      xiii. IAS G4713 Latin American Economic Development
   b. Global Security Studies
      i. IAS 5043 Global Security
      ii. IAS 5223 European Security
      iii. IAS 5940 Arab-Israeli Conflict
      iv. PSC 5553 International Security
      v. IAS 5033 International Human Rights
      vi. IAS 5013 International Law
      vii. IAS 5003 U.S. Foreign Relations
      viii. PSC 5523 Morality and Foreign Policy
      ix. PSC 5543 International Organizations and Regimes
      x. PSC 5623 International Terrorism
      xi. IAS 5940 Low Intensity Conflict
      xii. IAS 5940 National Security Policy
      xiii. IAS 5940 Comparative National Security III. AREA STUDIES (choose 6 hours in one field from a list as approved by the student’s advisory committee)

a. Asian Studies
   i. HIST 6800 Seminar in Japanese History
   ii. IAS 5133 Chinese Politics
   iii. IAS 5693 Political Economy of China
   iv. IAS 5153 Chinese Foreign Policy
   v. IAS/PHIL 5343 Early Chinese Philosophy vi. PSC 5600 Politics in East Asia

b. European Studies
   vii. HIST 6200 Seminar in European History viii. IAS 5213 Politics of the EU ix. IAS 5223 European Security
   x. PSC 5603 Russian Politics
   xi. PSC 5643 Politics in Western Europe

c. Latin American Studies xii. HIST 6300 Seminar in Latin American History xiii. IAS 5313 Mass Culture and Culture Industries in Modern Latin America
   xiv. IAS 5353 Latin American International Relations
   xv. PSC 5683 Politics in Latin America
   xvi. IAS G4713 Latin American Economic Development

d. Middle Eastern Studies xvii. HIST 6600 Seminar in Middle Eastern History xviii. IAS 5940 Arab-Israeli Conflict xix. IAS 5433 International Relations of the Middle East xx. IAS 5453 Politics and Policy of the Middle East xxi. PSC 5663 Politics of the Middle East xxii. IAS 5940 The Ottoman Empire and Modern Turkey xxiii. IAS 5940 Afghanistan in Conflict

IV. ELECTIVES (6 hours)
Choose any 6 hours (2 courses) from the above courses and a list as approved by the student’s advisory committee (may include advanced language, advanced research tool or internship credit)

V. RESEARCH AND PRACTICUM (3 hours, choose one of the following options)

a. IAS 5980 MA thesis
b. IAS 5923 Policy Exercise
c. IAS 5913 International Internship (if internship was not applied to elective hours)