College of International Studies
Prepare for International Giving (P.I.G.) Study Abroad Scholarship

The Prepare for International Giving (P.I.G.) scholarship was created by the College of International Studies to assist University of Oklahoma students interested in pursuing studies abroad. The total amount of the scholarship is to be determined at the conclusion of the P.I.G. fundraiser and is contingent on the total amount of funds raised. Awards will be given on a competitive basis to qualified undergraduate students, based on factors such as:

1. The quality of the student’s educational objectives and preparation for overseas study.
2. The student’s field of study, with preference going to International and Area Studies majors.
3. The cost of the overseas trip.
4. The student’s financial need.

To apply, students must submit the following:
1. The “P.I.G. Scholarship” application form.
2. Proof of plans to study abroad.
3. A current, official transcript.
4. An up to date résumé.
5. An essay (one page maximum) describing educational and personal goals and why they are connected to the overseas program for which they are applying.
6. The original and 1 copy of this application and additional material.

Applicants must meet the following specific criteria:
1. For undergraduate International Area Studies students, current sophomore level standing and a minimum one-year study at the University of Oklahoma by the time of participation.
2. Minimum overall grade point average of 3.0 for undergraduates and 3.5 for graduates.

Students submitting applications will be contacted with the final decision by the end of the fall 2011 semester.

IMPORTANT NOTE: Any student unable to complete the study abroad program will be required to return the full amount of the award to the College of International Studies.

Deadline is November 17th, 2011 by 10:00am
