MLLL 3173 Nabokov

Study the works of Nabokov
MW 3:00-4:15 Spring 2012

This course introduces students to the remarkable life and works of Vladimir Nabokov, tracing his unique trajectory from his early career as a renowned Russian writer to his years as a master stylist of the English language.

We will read Nabokov’s early works as well as his masterpieces, including his best known and most controversial novel, Lolita.

This course fulfills the Western Culture General Education requirement.

For more information, contact
Kirsten Rutsala: krutsala@ou.edu