AREQUIPA (MATARANI), PERU
The dazzling white facades and colonial architecture of this city are unique, wondrous, and ready to explore. Travel just outside the city to admire the magnificent pre-Inca terraces and soaring condors of Colca Canyon.

LIMA/MACHU PICCHU (CALLAO), PERU
The “Lost City of the Incas” is South America’s most intriguing archaeological site. Introduced to the world in 1911 by Hiram Bingham, who was the genuine Indiana Jones, Machu Picchu is perched 7,875 feet above sea level and has a 1,800-foot vertical drop. What remain are extraordinary stone buildings built by the Incas for use as temples, sanctuaries, homes, and water fountains. This UNESCO World Heritage Site was originally built in 1460. Also enchanting is the colonial city of Cuzco with its majestic Plaza de Armas and the ancient Incan fortress of Sacsayhuaman.

PISCO/NAZCA LINES, PERU
Wander through this entrancing fishing village at the edge of the desert; it rains only once every 25 years. Marvel at the Nazca Lines, geoglyphs carved into the desert floor by pre-Incan societies, over 300 figural drawings that have remained virtually undamaged through the centuries.

COQUIMBO, CHILE
In 1550, the city’s spectacular harbor first attracted the Spanish, who stayed to mine deep reserves of copper and gold. After a tour of the city’s scenic attractions, including the lighthouse, the graceful cathedral built in 1844, and the archaeological museum, visit the Enchanted Valley’s stone engravings and the Tololo Observatory, perched 6,000 feet above the Elqui Valley.

PUERTO MONTT, CHILE
Enjoy the Bavarian ambiance of the Lake District as you visit the edge of the Patagonian wilderness, seeing pristine wood forests, vast lakes, soaring waterfalls, snow-capped peaks, and spectacular vistas.

PUERTO CHACABUCO, CHILE
Experience a bit of rugged Patagonia with a drive into the Andes Mountains, through a stunning valley to the Rio Simpson National Reserve and the town of Coyhaique. Or visit the magnificent private Aikén del Sur Park and its many waterfalls, wetlands, forests, and mosses.

In each port of call you may select from a variety of optional shore excursions for an additional charge, some of which are referenced in the descriptions above.

Go Next will offer a unique collection of Oceania Cruises shore excursions that will be available approximately 4 months prior to departure.
