

Travel:

- Must be an enrolled student in the Department in the Ph.D. program
- Must be either presenting original research or traveling to the annual ASSA conference to interview for the job market
- Must have applied for either the GSS or the CAS travel support funds
- Must not be the Donor or an immediate family member of the Donor.

Awards:

- Must be a full-time, regularly enrolled graduate student in the Department
- Must be studying economics
- Must have high scholastic achievement
- Must have broad training in economics as a social science
- Must not be a contributor to the Fund or an immediate family member of a contributor.

Deadline: Student Travel Support is awarded on a rolling basis throughout the academic year. Students may submit their application materials at any time at a minimum of two weeks before their travel date. Exceptions can be made, upon DGS and Chair approval.

IMPORTANT NOTES: If you are traveling out of the US, you must register your emergency contact information with OU Education Abroad (there is a $50 fee for this service), and you must purchase CMI insurance through OU Education Abroad. Any student unable to complete the program will be required to return the full amount of the award to the Economics Department.

1. Provide the following information:

- Full Name
- OU ID #
- OU email address
- Cell phone numbers include code
- Permanent address

2. When is your expected graduation date?

3. Where are you traveling? (only if this application is for a travel scholarship, if not put N/A)

4. What amount of funding are you seeking? (travel only)

5. Provide brief paragraph of why you should be selected.
