Description of field setting; specific program/unit:

The field education contract serves as an ongoing resource for practicum activity and assignment planning; instructor feedback and student self-evaluation; and the student's final evaluation. It is based on core social work competencies defined by our accrediting body, the Council on Social Work Education (CSWE).

In 2008 CSWE adopted a competency based approach to social work education and revised its educational standards. In 2015 The Council revised the competencies to nine (9) core competencies comprised of social work knowledge, values, skills and cognitive and affective processes. The Council further identified thirty-one (31) practice behaviors by which students could demonstrate the integration and application of the nine competencies. The University of Oklahoma Anne & Henry Zarrow School of Social Work is accountable to the Council to ensure that students have the opportunity to acquire each competency and to evaluate each student to determine the extent to which the competencies have been achieved.

The goal of social work field education is the integration and application of classroom learning in the field. Therefore, the field education contract requires that students further operationalize the practice behaviors for the purpose of competency demonstration in the field setting. These tasks ask the student to tie classroom knowledge to its application in practice. In order to accomplish the practice behaviors, each student and field instructor must develop Work Plans, i.e. assignments and activities grounded in the mission, culture, and work of the practicum site. While developing work plans, and during the practicum, the contract will act as a guide for the instructor and student as they utilize the site to bring to life in a practice setting the signature broad perspective of the social work profession. Revisions to work plans should be added to the contract throughout the practicum in response to ongoing feedback about student performance, new opportunities that come along, or changes taking place at the practicum site. Along with revisions, both student and instructor can make helpful notes for themselves along the way.

Each practicum is divided into two developmental levels comprised of two (2) academic courses. During the practicum, the student and instructor will work together to Evaluate Student Performance of activities and assignments included in the work plan for each competency area. This evaluation can be an ongoing process generated by discussions at supervision conferences. In this way, the student can receive continuous feedback about competency performance.

Field Instruction Assessment

In order to assist with practicum planning, students were asked to provide a current resume and complete a self-assessment at the time of their Application for Field Instruction. The following information was provided by your student at that time.

Evaluation Instrument SWK 5413

The following evaluation instrument is built into the education contract. This design should assist field instructors as they provide students with ongoing feedback about their performance. When preceptors have been included in the plan for practicum supervision, their feedback must somehow be incorporated into this process.

Although feedback and evaluation are best as an ongoing dialogue, all placements have two (2) official grading periods, one for each course. In full time (block) placements, students receive two final grades for the practicum within one semester, one at mid-practicum and the other at the end of the practicum. In two semester placements, students receive final grades at the end of two consecutive semesters. All evaluations are referred to as the Final Evaluation.

At the end of each evaluation period the field instructor and student jointly review the student's performance within nine (9) competency areas in terms of the criteria specified in the field contract. The field instructor then assigns official Evaluation Instrument ratings for the practice tasks included under each competency. These ratings must be based on actual performance of the specified criteria, as opposed to anticipated progress during the remainder of the practicum. The field instructor provides a narrative description of "evidence to support" all final ratings. Student and instructor together can develop "strategies to increase competence," i.e. ways in which practice behaviors and ratings can be further improved. These strategies can actually be developed and recorded throughout the practicum. In this way, feedback and improvement planning can be structured into ongoing development of the education contract, and new ideas can be generated to offer the student the best possible chance to succeed in the practicum. When warranted (see Practicum Grading Policy in the Field Practicum Manual) strategies to increase competence must be developed more formally by the field instructor and faculty field liaison as a school-required Performance Improvement Plan and included in the Evaluation of Student Performance narrative which appears at the end of the Field Practicum Contract.

On the scale provided after each practice behavior, please indicate level of performance by selecting the appropriate value.

^{*} The structure of this evaluation instrument and the rating scale were developed by the Office of Field Education at the University of Texas, Austin.

Educational Plan Competency Area, Practice Behaviors & Practice Tasks Work Plans: Specific Practicum Activities & Assignments

This section of the Contract includes competencies which establish guidelines for the student's professional approach to the practicum experience. It offers ways that a student may take advantage of the mentoring relationship in the practicum. And, it helps the student situate the practicum in a social services context and begin exploring what it means to be a professional social worker.

All social work students must be familiar with and are bound by the provisions of the University of Oklahoma Anne & Henry Zarrow School of Social Work Student Performance Policy. Included in this policy are standards for professional behavior which must be incorporated into and met this practicum.
