

UNIT 3 LESSON 1

Name: _____

Date: _____

Record your research about a famous person with a disability.

Who did you research? Why are they famous?

What is the disability your person has? How does this disability affect them and their life?

Describe the strengths your person demonstrates.

Describe the limitations your person may have.

How can this person encourage you to persevere in your own life, even when faced with difficulties?

UNIT 3 LESSON 2

Name: _____

Date: _____

Use this graphic organizer to help organize your thoughts and gather information about your disability.

My disability is:

Identify your disability category and define your disability.

What are some common characteristics associated with your disability?

Describe what your disability looks like for you.

UNIT 3 LESSON 2

Name: _____

Date: _____

How does your disability affect you in school?

How does your disability affect you outside of school?

UNIT 3 LESSON 3

Name: _____

Date: _____

My disability is:

What accommodations make school more accessible for you?

What accommodations make work more accessible for you?
If you're not currently employed, think of accommodations you may need in future employment.

UNIT 3 LESSON 4

Name: _____

Date: _____

Describe a situation that you have shared or might need to share information about your disability.

What part of self-disclosure are you most confident about?

What part of self-disclosure are you least confident about?

UNIT 3 LESSON 4

Name: _____

Date: _____

If you wanted to tell a new teacher about your disability, what would you say? Be sure to use people-first language!

If you wanted to tell your new boss about your disability, what would you say? Be sure to use people-first language!

UNIT 3 LESSON 5

Name: _____

Date: _____

Use this graphic organizer to organize the information you need to write your own elevator speech.

Share your name:

Write down your strengths:

What supports do you need?

What is your disability?

Write down at least one of your accommodations:

My case worker is:

UNIT 3 LESSON 5

Name: _____

Date: _____

Put everything together to create your elevator speech!

Hello, my name is

I would like to introduce myself. I am good at

In class, I need support with because of my disability which is

I have accommodations that help me be successful academically. For example,

If you have any questions about my accommodations, you can ask me or my case worker

Thank you!

UNIT 3 LESSON 1

Name: _____

Date: _____

Record your research about a famous person with a disability.

Who did you research? Why are they famous?

What is the disability your person has? How does this disability affect them and their life?

Describe the strengths your person demonstrates.

Describe the limitations your person may have.

How can this person encourage you to persevere in your own life, even when faced with difficulties?

UNIT 3 LESSON 2

Name: _____

Date: _____

Use this graphic organizer to help organize your thoughts and gather information about your disability.

My disability is:

Define your disability.

What does your disability look like for you?

How does your disability affect your learning?

UNIT 3 LESSON 2

Name: _____

Date: _____

How does your disability affect you in school?

How does your disability affect you outside of school?

UNIT 3 LESSON 3

Name: _____

Date: _____

My disability is:

What accommodations make school more accessible for you?

What accommodations make work more accessible for you?
If you're not currently employed, think of accommodations you may need in future employment.

UNIT 3 LESSON 4

Name: _____

Date: _____

Describe a situation that you have shared or might need to share information about your disability.

What part of self-disclosure are you most confident about?

What part of self-disclosure are you least confident about?

UNIT 3 LESSON 4

Name: _____

Date: _____

If you wanted to tell a new teacher about your disability, what would you say? Be sure to use people-first language!

If you wanted to tell your new boss about your disability, what would you say? Be sure to use people-first language!

UNIT 3 LESSON 5

Name: _____

Date: _____

Use this graphic organizer to organize the information you need to write your own elevator speech.

Share your name:

Write down your strengths:

What supports do you need?

What is your disability?

Write down at least one of your accommodations:

My case worker is:

UNIT 3 LESSON 5

Name: _____

Date: _____

Put everything together to create your elevator speech!

Hello, my name is

I would like to introduce myself. I am good at

In class, I need support with

because of my disability which is

I have accommodations that help me be successful academically. For example,

If you have any questions about my accommodations, you can ask me or my case worker

Thank you!