

2024-2025

CENTENNIAL EVENTS

A. Max Weitzenhoffer School of Musical Theatre

CRAZY FOR YOU

This ebullient romantic comedy was the winner of three Tony Awards and features cowboys, showgirls, tap dancing and a glorious score from George and Ira Gershwin.

April 5-7 and April 12-14, 2024

Elsie C. Brackett Theatre

School of Dance

FIVE MOONS DANCE FESTIVAL

Join the OU School of Dance for the Five Moons Dance Festival as we honor Moscelyne Larkin, Maria Tallchief, Marjorie Tallchief, Rosella Hightower, and Yvonne Chouteau, five American Indian ballerinas from Oklahoma whose perseverance propelled them to perform on the world's greatest stages and leave a lasting mark on the future of dance.

August 23-25, 2024

Reynolds Performing Arts Center

School of Music

MUSICAL MOSAIC

An exciting concert featuring a rich variety of performances by all areas of the School of Music.

October 3, 2024

Sharp Concert Hall, inside Catlett Music Center

OU School of Visual Arts

EPISODES FROM A HISTORY OF THE OU SCHOOL OF VISUAL ARTS

An exhibition of artworks, publications, and ephemera from the past which celebrate the accomplishments of OU School of Visual Arts' students, faculty, and staff. Visit and learn about the artists, designers, and art historians who have built impressive histories of creative activity and scholarship in the visual arts.

November 18-December 6, 2024

Lightwell Gallery

Helmerich School of Drama

WAITING FOR LEFTY

Six cab drivers at a fateful union meeting share glimpses into their private lives as they publicly wrestle with a difficult decision—to strike or not to strike? Based on the historical taxi driver strikes of 1934, Clifford Odets's WAITING FOR LEFTY dramatizes the socioeconomic tensions of his time and captures the dangerous sounds of revolt.

February 7-9 and February 13-16, 2025

Weitzenhoffer Theatre

