

2024-2025
ENGAGE CALENDAR

WE INVITE YOU TO ENJOY YOUR WEITZENHOFFER FAMILY COLLEGE OF FINE ARTS' ENGAGE CALENDAR FOR THE 2024-2025 ACADEMIC YEAR!

As the second semester of our centennial celebration approaches, we are more excited than ever to share our special centennial events. The School of Dance presents the Five Moons Dance Festival honoring the legacy of Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo ballerina and School of Dance Founder, Yvonne Chouteau August 24-25. The School of Music joins its considerable forces in the presentation of a brilliant Musical Mosaic in October, and, also in the fall, the School of Visual Arts unveils a spectacular The Centennial Exhibition: Episodes from the History of the OU School of Visual Arts worthy of celebrating the past and present excellence of its faculty, students, and alumni. Our final centennial presentation by the Helmerich School of Drama will be Clifford Odets' Waiting for Lefty scheduled for production in the spring. A topic of controversy, Waiting for Lefty was banned at OU in the 1930s when it was first considered for production. We are delighted to bring this insightful and long-respected play to our stage this season as our final centennial offering.

Along with our centennial events, you will find an entire engaging array of events in the visual and performing arts—over 400 in fact!—to fill your calendar, ignite your imagination, and lift your spirit. Join us in the Weitzenhoffer Family College of Fine Arts as we celebrate our first one hundred years—a milestone to be sure but also the gateway to our second century and all that is in store! You won't want to miss a moment!

With all best wishes,

Professor Mary Margaret Holt
Dean, Weitzenhoffer Family College of Fine Arts
Nichols' Chair, Regents' Professor, and Presidential Professor

AN INVITATION TO SUPPORT THE ARTS

Welcome to another thrilling season at the Weitzenhoffer Family College of Fine Arts! This year is particularly special as we find ourselves in the midst of both the University's "Lead On" campaign and the centennial celebration of our college.

Since the campaign's inception in 2022, we have raised approximately $20 million in support of our Fine Arts students, faculty, and programs, positioning us for continued success over the next 100 years, and beyond. Your support has been instrumental in helping us not only recover but also surpass our pre-COVID positions. We are now better equipped to attract and support more talented students than ever before. As we reflect on this moment and celebrate, we recognize the profound impact of your dedication and generosity.

Our performance experience is also significantly enriched by your presence. As donors, patrons, and community supporters, you are integral to the excellence that defines our college. Throughout the year, we invite you to explore the many artistic experiences we proudly offer. Our students' thoughtful approaches to creativity and innovation have reached new heights, and we encourage you to partake in these experiences frequently and fully.

We eagerly anticipate seeing you soon and are confident that you will be amazed by the remarkable talents of our students. Your unwavering support, whether from your seat in the theatre or the gallery halls, deeply humbles us and fuels our passion for the arts. We are incredibly excited for you to witness the extraordinary accomplishments your support makes possible.

With gratitude,

David Barocio

ABOUT THE ARTIST:

Sara Mohajer is an MFA candidate in Art, Technology, and Culture in the OU School of Visual Arts. She is a multi-media artist whose current work is focused on the theme of monsters. Sara selected this theme because it relates to her own childhood trauma, which she still struggles with today. "Creating art with a monster theme has become a way to express my feelings that I cannot easily express in words," said Sara. "Drawing and making monster-like figures has become a way to convey my fears, anxieties, and emotions."

Previous experiences have guided Sara to develop an interest in digital visual art. By using a knowledge of graphic design, in combination with cultural elements, she began to focus on digital illustration, character design, and animation.

Sara's artistic journey is a fusion of diverse influences. With an associate degree in Carpet Design and a BA in Graphic Design, she brings the rich visual motives and forms of Iranian carpet design into her work. She also delves into the world of Iranian calligraphy, using it as a springboard to explore new approaches in typography and create more diverse graphical forms. This unique blend of cultural elements is a testament to Sara's artistic vision and the depth of her creative exploration.

ABOUT THE ARTWORK:

Untitled, acrylic, self-adhesive fabric

Sara used Iranian calligraphy in abstract forms along with other abstract elements to tell a story. That story is based on her own experience and trauma paired with a life-long interest in Iranian classical literature, specifically Shahnameh and the Tale of Zahhak. This design is Sara's first step in presenting her personal interpretation of the story. Future plans for this work include use in a bigger abstract animation project.
