The Slate Reader

Navigating the Interface

The Slate Reader is designed to be navigated using both the mouse and keyboard. While some users may be accustomed to using only the mouse to navigate web pages, using keyboard shortcuts enables faster navigation, and we've included several keyboard shortcuts in the Slate Reader to help you move through applications quickly.

Using the Mouse

- Click tabs in the left panel to change sections
- Double-click on a page to zoom in
- Right-click on a page to zoom out
- Click-and-drag to move within/between pages

Using the Keyboard

- Arrow Keys: move up/down/left/right
- Pg Up/Pg Down: page up, page down
- +/-: zoom in, zoom out
- Tab: next section in index
- Shift + Tab: previous section in index
- 1-9: display 1st tab, 2nd tab, etc. in index
- Ctrl + Left/Right Arrow: rotate page (PC)
- Cmd + Left/Right Arrow: rotate page (Mac)
- Shift + H: toggle highlight remover
- H: toggle highlighter
- N: toggle note editor
- Q: toggle display of queue
- R: toggle display of Review Form / Send to Bin
- S: toggle display of search
- Esc: close open panels, return to first section

- To evaluate the applications that have been assigned to you, click on Queue.

- Click on the first application in your Queue. Once it opens you will see the following:
 - Left navigation column - shows the application and credentials associated with the application.
 - You may navigate through the application and credentials by clicking the credentials in the left navigation
 - If the credentials in the left navigation pane are grayed out then they have not been submitted.
 - The center pane – this where you can view the application and credentials.
 - The document in the center pane changes as you click on credentials in the left navigation column.
