

Ken Johnson with the Radio Oklahoma News Network in Oklahoma City. We have 50 news affiliates across the state.

We are looking for a new graduate or close to graduating person to take over covering the state capitol for us.

Here are the basics in what we need.

The Radio Oklahoma News Network is seeking someone to be our State Capitol reporter. They would cover state agencies and daily coverage of the legislative session from February to the end of May.

This candidate will be required to produce concise content for hourly newscasts with tight time restraints. Experience in audio editing is required.

An awareness of topics which impact the entire state is necessary with a commitment to unbiased news coverage.

The hours are 9am to 4:30 p.m. daily. Please submit an aircheck and resume to ken.johnson@hilliary.com

Warm Regards,

Ken Johnson
News Director
405-902-8228