Course Objectives:
The purpose of this course is to help students:
1. develop an understanding of human development as a product of genetic, maturational, societal, and self-directed factors;
2. to be able to identify the developmental stages and the tasks associated with each stage;
3. to be able to explain how successful resolution of each developmental crisis contributes to development of a prime adaptive ego quality; and
4. to be able to explain how unsuccessful resolution of each developmental crisis contributes to core pathology.

Assignments, Grading and Due Dates:

Pre-Class Paper:
Utilizing the text as a resource, prepare a 7-10 page paper assessing a person whom you know or someone you interview regarding their developmental history as it relates to Erikson’s psychosocial stages of development as presented in the text (e.g., trust vs. mistrust). APA format must be used.

Class Presentation:
A class presentation on a state of development will be required, and assignments of individual presentations will be made the first class meeting or by email prior to class.

Final Exam:
Students will prepare a team presentation applying psychosocial development theory to a person of interest whom they choose. The teams will be assigned by the third day of class to allow time for research.

Instructional Strategies:
Individual written reports, mini-lectures, power point presentations, group and individual presentations, and class discussion will be used in this course.

Grading:
This is a letter-graded course: A, B, C, D, or F.

POLICIES AND NOTICES

Attendance/Grade Policy

Attendance and participation in interaction, individual assignments, group exercises, simulations, role playing, etc. are valuable aspects of any course because much of the learning comes from discussions in class with other students. It is expected that you attend all classes and be on time except for excused emergencies.

Excused absences are given for professor mandated activities or legally required activities such as emergencies or military assignments. Unavoidable personal emergencies, including (but not limited to) serious illness; delays in getting to class because of accidents, etc.; deaths and funerals, and hazardous road conditions will be excused.

If you are obtaining financial assistance (TA, STAP, FA, VA, Scholarship, etc.) to pay all or part of your tuition cost, you must follow your funding agency/institution’s policy regarding “I” (Incomplete) grades unless the timeline is longer than what the University policy allows then you must adhere to the University policy.

Students who receive Financial Aid must resolve/complete any “I” (Incomplete) grades by the end of the term or he/she may be placed on “financial aid probation.” If the “I” grade is not resolved/completed by the end of the following term, the student’s Financial Aid may be suspended make the student ineligible for further Financial Aid.

Students are responsible for meeting the guidelines of Tuition Assistance and Veterans Assistance. See the education counselor at your local education center for a complete description of your TA or VA requirements.

Academic Honesty

Honesty is a fundamental precept in all academic activities and … [you] have a special obligation to observe the highest standards of honesty. Academic misconduct in any form is inimical to the purposes and functions of the University and is therefore unacceptable and is rigorously proscribed. Academic misconduct includes:

cheating (using unauthorized materials, information, or study aids in any academic exercise), plagiarism, falsification of records, unauthorized possession of examinations, intimidation, and any and all other actions that may improperly affect the evaluation of a student’s academic performance or achievement; assisting others in any such act; or attempting to engage in such acts.

All acts of academic misconduct will be reported and adjudicated as prescribed by the student code of the University of Oklahoma. All students should review the “Student’s Guide to Academic Integrity” found at http://www.ou.edu/provost/integrity
