Energy Executive Management Program
(Maximum number of participants: 25)

Continental Breakfast: 7.30 to 8.00 am
Session 1: 8.00 to 10.00 am (part 1); 10.15 to 12.15 (part 2)
Lunch*: 12.15 to 2.00 pm
Session 2: 2.00 to 4.00 pm (part 1); 4.15 to 6.15 pm (part 2)

February 28th (Monday)
- Program Overview
  Fernando
- Economics (Macro; Oil and Gas)
  Megginson
- Project Appraisal
  Thomas
Lunch
David Williams, Director, Business Communications Center, Price College of Business
Session 2
- Cost of Capital, Energy Project Valuation & Real Options
  Fernando
Dinner: 6.30 to 8.00 pm
Location:
Sam Noble Oklahoma Museum of Natural History, Norman
Speaker:
Mark A. Stansberry (Chairman of The GTD Group, President of The Energy Advocates from 2003 to 2009, Chairman and Founder of the International Energy Policy Conference)
Topic:
The Braking Point: America’s Energy Dreams and Global Economic Realities

March 1st (Tuesday)
Session 1.1
- Financing Energy Projects
  Megginson
Session 1.2
- Mergers and Acquisitions
  Megginson
Lunch
“Oil & Gas Private Equity”
Murphy Markham, Partner: EnCap Investments
Session 2
- Oil and Gas Accounting
  Crain

March 2nd (Wednesday)
Session 1
- Energy, Corporate Risk and Hedging
  Ederington
Lunch
“Global Oil and Natural Gas Prices – Near-term Influences and Long-term Trends”
Jon Warzel, VP Planning & Evaluation – Marketing & Midstream, Devon Energies
Session 2
- Organizational Behavior
  Bolino

March 3rd (Thursday)
Session 1.1
- Carbon management/Environmental Issues
  Golubeva
Session 1.2
- Distributing and Marketing
  Witherspoon
Lunch
“The Essentials of the Oil & Gas Asset”
David Oshel, David Oshel Law, Managing Partner, PLLC
Session 2
- Communication/Negotiations
  Anderson, Owen
Energy Executive Management Program

March 4th (Friday)
Session 1.1 ● Managers vs. Leaders, General Management Buckley
Session 1.2 ● Legal Anderson
Lunch “The Ernst & Young Business Risk Report: The Top 10 Risks for Oil and Gas” Trey Raymer, Senior Manager, Assurance Services, E&Y
Session 2.1 ● Business Plan Busenitz
Session 2.2 ● Corporate Strategy Sharfman

Closing Remarks and Cocktail Reception - 6.30 to 7.30 pm

*Each lunch session will be used to discuss a business topic relevant to the energy industry and moderated by an industry or faculty expert. The participants will be formed into teams for these sessions. The teams will be changed each day so that all participants get to know each other by the end of this program.