

GROUP TOUR: MUST-SEE SPOTS

Check out these “must see” places at the University of Oklahoma. Read the historical building markers across campus to learn about the history and tradition of OU.

20 Oklahoma Memorial Union

Stop by for a coffee or snack in this spot that also houses Student Life, the One U Store, and more. Visit the Clarke Anderson Room to see a Sooner Schooner, the official mascot of OU.

34 Lissa and Cy Wagner Hall

This beautiful building houses all freshman programs and serves as a central location for the main academic services that are available to students, like free tutoring and the OU Writing Center.

28 ExxonMobil/Lawrence G. Rawl Engineering Practice Facility

In this space, students build racecars, concrete canoes, and whatever else they can dream up. To schedule a group tour, email visitengineering@ou.edu.

58 Gaylord Family-Oklahoma Memorial Stadium

This is home to Sooner football, which has the most victories and best winning percentage of any team since the end of World War II.

37 Bizzell Memorial Library

Go inside to see the ornate Great Reading Room and the Helmerich Collaborative Learning Center filled with technology, a student recording studio, and spaces that foster collaboration and creativity.

83 Walker Center

One of OU's freshman residence halls, Walker Center offers students a suite-style room. Stop by the showroom to see the place many Sooner freshmen call home.

85 Couch Restaurants

Home to the world's only all-you-can-eat Chick-fil-A, Couch Restaurants houses 14 unique dining concepts. To set up a group lunch here, contact Sharrie at Sharrie.d.Sanders-1@ou.edu.

133 Tom Love Innovation Hub (on the Research Campus)

Equipped with virtual reality programs and a digital fabrication lab with 3D printers, laser cutters, a full woodshop, and more, the Innovation Hub is open to all members of the community. Schedule a group tour by emailing innovationhub@ou.edu.

5 Fred Jones Jr. Museum of Art

The Fred Jones Jr. Museum of Art houses works of art by Degas, Monet, and Van Gogh, and admission is free for guests! To schedule a group tour, email museumtours@ou.edu.

138 National Weather Center (on the Research Campus)

OU is #1 in the nation for severe storm research, and students work with industry professionals to study and predict weather patterns at the National Weather Center. Schedule a group tour at ou.edu/nwc/visit.

INSTAGRAM-WORTHY

Love Statue

Located by Jacobson Hall, this statue is a rendition of the iconic "LOVE" sculpture by pop artist Robert Indiana. Be sure to include #loveOU in any pics you post!

Great Reading Room

A must-see location, stepping into the Great Reading Room may feel like walking right into a scene from Harry Potter. Find it just inside the south entrance of Bizzell Memorial Library

Union Courtyard

With brick walls covered in ivy, hanging lights, and umbrella-covered tables, the Union Courtyard is the perfect spot to enjoy a beautiful afternoon.

Clock Tower

This landmark, located outside Bizzell Memorial Library, is the perfect background. Just don't walk under the tower: Legend has it that students who do so will not graduate in four years.

Questions?

Call the Office of Admissions & Recruitment at (405) 325-2151 or check out visit.ou.edu for more information. We encourage you to explore OU and find your favorite spots!