Facts of the Petition

SP25-001 was submitted to the Student Government Association Election Commission on March 27th by Election Commissioner Baylor Savage. It was filed against Parker Worley, William Beasley, Armando Gonzalez, Javen Sands, Luke Clay, Steven Di Jorio, and Himani Prajapati. A formal petition was filed via email against the candidates with them each getting an opportunity to respond to the petition. The petition alleged that the candidates did not attend the mandatory informational despite being told multiple times via email that it was mandatory and giving them options to do so.

After holding a meeting for review of SP25-001, the Election Commission determined that the candidates committed a Class A infraction by not attending the mandatory informational meeting.

The Election Commission determined the candidates who didn't attend the mandatory informational should be assigned 2.5 and Himani 2 points, respectively, due to this infraction.

Discussion

When determining the Class A infraction, the Election Commission considered how many points should be awarded to the people deemed to not attend the mandatory informational meetings. The points were determined by the rationale that Himani Prajapati made an effort to respond after the period of mandatory meetings, the others did not attempt to address the petition at all. As a result, the commission felt it necessary and proper to award Himani 2 points and the others 2.5 points.

It is so ordered.
